The eligible and qualified candidates through NEET UG 2020 examination can go for online enrollment, fee payment, registration, choice filling and choice locking as per schedule being provided in the website www.wbmcc.nic.in

For any kind of suppression of facts/ mis-information or fabricated information furnished by candidate at any stage related to admission in MBBS/BDS/AYUSH courses in West Bengal through counseling 2020 for State Quota, Private college Management Quota or NRI Quota or Private AYUSH college AIQ quota shall lead to cancellation of the candidature with immediate effect.

No personal information shall be provided to any candidate. They are requested to visit the websites www.wbuhs.ac.in and www.wbmcc.nic.in frequently for updates and information.

Tentative schedule for counseling:-

Round 1 shall start from 9 Nov 2020 and result declaration by 16 Nov 2020 with admission completion by 18 Nov 2020. Round 2 shall start from 4th Dec 2020 and result by 10 Dec 2020 and admission to be completed by 14 Dec 2020. Centralized Mop Up to start from 15 Dec 2020 and the completion of admission shall be within 25 Dec 2020 with sending of the non allotted registered candidate list and vacancy to the colleges by 25 Dec 2020. The college round to start from 26 Dec 2020 and ends by 31 Dec 2020.

Due to COVID 19 pandemic and time constraints, document verification shall be done during admission. Hence the steps would be enrollment followed by fee payment and when successfully paid the candidate shall be able to register then fill up choices (Medical/Dental/AYUSH or any combination as per eligibility) and lock their saved choices. Provisional Allotment letter will be issued.

The allotted candidates are to attend to the allotted college physically and deposit the original documents and fees and secure online admission subject to the condition that all documents are in order as declared by the candidate during enrollment and registration.

The enrollment stage issues and outcomes of verification:-

During the enrollment stage, the candidate shall be asked about his/her domicile status in WB. If not domiciled, then candidate can participate for management quota seats only. If the candidate is domiciled, then the type of form filled shall be enquired that is a1 or a2 or b form as per notification. This is subject to verification before admission in the allotted institute. If the candidate fails to provide valid or appropriate domicile certificate during verification, then the allotment shall be cancelled for that round. The candidate may be considered in the subsequent round as non domicile and would be allowed to fill up choice for management quota seats or AYUSH Private College AIQ seats only provided such candidate still remains eligible for such seats with altered status.

The candidates who had declared themselves as SC or ST or OBC or EWS in the NEET UG 2020 shall be asked to fill up the form whether they are SC/ST/OBCA/OBCB/EWS in WB and if the answer is yes, then he/she can participate for caste state quota seats counseling provided he/she is also domicile in WB.

It is understood that there is possibility that central and State list of caste and sub caste may be different, so candidates who have stated themselves as UR in central list while filling up form of NEET UG 2020 but has valid caste/economically weaker section certificate issued in the State of WB, can declare themselves as SC/ST/OBCA/OBCB/EWS in WB. They can participate for caste state quota seats counseling provided he/she is also domicile in WB.

If a candidate is domiciled in WB but the SC/ST/OBC/EWS certificate is of other state, then he/she would be treated as Unreserved for state quota counseling and can participate for UR seats in state quota if achieved UR cut off 50 percentile in NEET UG 2020. They can however participate also for management quota seats as per combined rank in NEET UG 2020 exam. They can also participate for AYUSH Private College AIQ seats as caste candidates.

Candidates who have opted for PwD shall be asked if they have certificate from IPGMER Kolkata for PwD status as per 21 benchmark disabilities as per Disability Act of 2016 and if the answer is affirmative then he/she can participate for PwD seats counseling provided he/she is also the domicile in WB. If the candidate is non domicile to the State of WB, then he/she can participate for management quota seats of Private colleges and can also participate for AYUSH Private College AIQ seats ((as per seat available in the seat matrix or seats received Letter of Permission for 2020 at the time of counseling).

During admission stage, if it is found that the candidate is not having appropriate caste or PwD certificate as was stated during enrollment then the seat of that round shall be cancelled and the candidate can be considered as Unreserved or Non PwD case for subsequent round provided the candidate still remains eligible with the changed status.

The age must be at least 17 completed years by 31 Dec 2020. Else the candidature shall be cancelled.

The candidate must obtain minimum qualification with pass marks in class XII Higher Secondary or equivalent examination as per his or her caste status in WB. Else the candidature shall be cancelled. The candidate has to pass in PCB and English separately with 50% marks in combination of PCB for UR/EWS candidates or 45% marks in combination of PCB for UR PwD/EWS PwD candidate or 40% marks in combination of PCB for SC/ST/OBCA/OBCB/SC PwD/ST PwD/OBC A PwD/OBC B PwD candidates (caste certificate must be issued in WB).

The cut off for NRI quota seats and Management quota seats shall be 50 percentile for UR/EWS candidates or 45 percentile for UR PwD/EWS PwD candidate or 40 percentile for SC/ST/OBC candidates with or without PwD status. For such quota seats domicile certificate is not required but age and class XII exam result criteria is applicable.

Candidates opting for NRI quota seats cannot opt for State Quota or management quota seats. Similarly, candidate opting for State quota or management quota seats cannot opt for NRI quota.

Only for candidates opting for NRI quota, verification of documents shall be done centrally after declaration of result. The documents as the proof of candidate or sponsorer being NRI must be provided by the candidate physically to the central verification authority. Only after verification such allotted candidate can move to the respective allotted college for completion of the admission formalities with original documents and fees. If they fail during verification then they shall be disqualified from counseling process.

Enrollment, fee payment for counseling and registration shall be one time for a particular candidate. However fresh enrollment and registration is allowed in round 1, 2 and central mop up round and if any cut off is reduced by the Govt. of India during the counseling process. Furthermore, such enrollment and registration may again be allowed in college round if only the total previous non allotted and registered candidate list is less than 10 times of the pooled vacancy for college round.

The candidate who does not register and fill choice in round 1 and save and lock such choice (or system auto locks the choice after the choice locking period is just over)—shall not be considered for allotment in Round 1. Choice filling shall be afresh in Round 2 for the registered candidate.

The non allotted candidate in Round 1; or the candidate who was allotted and admitted in round 1 and submitted willingness for participation in round 2; or the newly registered candidate in round 2 can fill choice afresh for round 2 allotment.

The candidates who are not registered, the candidates who failed during the document verification at the allotted college and became not eligible for subsequent round, the candidate who did not opt for subsequent round, the candidate who do not fill fresh choice in subsequent round or the candidate who did not report with documents and fee to the allotted college in time in earlier round or the candidate who surrendered seat after getting admission in earlier round —are not considered for allotment in Round 2.

Non reported candidates (with original documents and college fees as specified in counseling website www.wbmcc.nic.in) or candidates cancelled due to want of essential documents or candidates who surrendered after admission or the candidates found to submit mis information/falsification/fabrication of documents—shall be out of further counseling process.

The centralized mop up round shall be manual and the registered candidates shall to be called in a phased manner as per combined rank with single iteration for selection/up-gradation of seat available at their rank at that time. The seat conversion shall be SC to ST and vice versa and OBCA to OBCB and vice versa and PwD to respective category or EWS to UR if no suitable candidate is available.

No conversion of SC/ST seat to UR and no conversion of OBCA/OBCB seats to UR are possible without the permission of the BCWD, Govt. of WB.

During the college round, the eligible non allotted registered candidate can visit the college with vacancy as per their choice (only one college at a given day) with fee and documents and shall be allotted to the seat as per inter se merit. SC/ST or OBC seat conversion to Unreserved is not possible without permission of the backward class.

NRI quota seats if vacant and no suitable candidate if available in the college round can be converted to Management quota after obtaining prior permission from WBMCC.

The allotment cum admission in college round shall be done in each date of college round with updating of the vacancy in the evening for the next date till last date of admission that is 31 Dec 2020.

Information regarding donor seats:-

There are certain donor/trust quota seats e.g. Madan Puraskar Guthi from Nepal (for 1 seat each in MCH Kolkata and RGKar MCH Kolkata); Sura Shamsher Jing Bahadur Rana from Nepal (for 1 seat in RGKar MCH); MC Law-Pratima Devi Law-MN De legal heir (for total 4 seats in CNMC Kolkata) and Subarna Banik Samaj (for 3 seats in RGKar Kolkata) in Govt. Medical Colleges in WB.

The recommendations are received from such trust/donor as per their policy regarding the NEET UG 2020 qualified candidates for admission provided the essential documents as discussed above are in proper place. These seats are beyond the online counseling purview of WBMCC.

Information regarding central pool seats:-

There are certain central pool seats in few Govt. Medical and Dental Colleges in WB like 3 seats in BMC Burdwan, 3 seats in BSMC Bankura, 4 seats in NBMC Darjeeling and 4 seats in Dr R Ahmed Dental College and Hospital.

The recommendations are received from Govt. of India from NEET UG 2020 qualified candidates belonging to families of terrorist attack victims/war victims/ State or UT where there is no Medical or Dental college at present etc. The candidates have to provide the essential documents as discussed above for admission. These seats are beyond the online counseling purview of WBMCC.

It is understood that some AYUSH private colleges may have All India Quota seats and such seats are also to be done counseling by the WBMCC if obtains Letter of Permission (LOP) from the competent authority. In such seats the rules apply of the All India Counseling that is seats are classified as UR, SC, ST, OBC and corresponding PwD based on Govt. of India caste formulation. The fee may be different from State Quota/ Management quota seats. Here, the caste as per NEET UG 2020 may be considered and SC/ST/OBC from any state can participate in respective caste seats. The seats if any left vacant after 2 rounds of counseling shall be deemed to be converted to State Quota and State Quota rules shall be applicable for allotment.

As the document verification can only be possible after allotment at the allotted college for the allotted candidate (NRI allotted candidates have to appear for document verification centrally at Swasthya Bhavan as per schedule before approaching for the allotted college), the candidates would find the undertaking printed on allotment letter to be signed by them during admission process that:-

“ I, NEET UG 2020 Roll No....., NEET UG 2020 rank, solemnly undertake that the information provided during enrollment process are true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if it is found that I have deliberately tried to provide mis information or falsification or fabrication of documents or obtained unfair means then my candidature shall be cancelled at once and I shall not be allowed to participate further in counseling process of WB UG 2020.”

Details of admission procedure and further rounds of the counseling schedule shall be informed in the counseling website www.wbmcc.nic.in in due course. The candidates are requested to frequently visit the said website for further information because no individual communication in this regard can be provided.
